- Playing Conditions: ABSC Playing Conditions and the Player's Code of Conduct and Ethics. Any breach or non-adherence to standard etiquette may result in disciplinary action.
Players agree to follow advice on the Venue & Event Covid Safety plan.
- Smoking and Alcohol: No players or referees are permitted to smoke or consume alcohol whilst involved in playing or refereeing a game – unless during an official session break.
- Dress: Tournament standard dress is required for all matches: Tailored trousers; long sleeve, predominantly plain coloured shirts buttoned at the wrist; bow ties; waistcoat; socks; dark dress shoes. Failure to comply with these conditions will result in forfeiture of match.
- Refereeing: All players will be required to referee matches as directed by the Tournament Director. Losing players in knockout rounds will be expected to referee the following matches, and if not required they must seek leave from the tournament director before leaving the venue.
- Completion of matches: As part of the entry conditions, all players must complete all their matches, regardless of their current form or where they may finish in their group.
- Format & Prize money: Format will be determined once all entries have been received. Prize money will be $500.
- Entry requirement: A completed online entry form is required before any player is permitted to compete.
